THE CONSTITUTION OF KENYA THE COUNTY GOVERNMENTS ACT

(Cap. 265)

NAIROBI CITY COUNTY GOVERNMENT

THE NAIROBI CITY COUNTY GOVERNMENT–AGOK TASKFORCE ON THE REVIEW OF THE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE NAIROBI CITY COUNTY BETTING, LOTTERIES AND GAMING ACT, 2026

1. Citation and Establishment.

These Terms of Reference may be cited as the “Nairobi City County Government Betting, Lotteries and Gaming Reforms

Taskforce on the Review of the Implementation of the Nairobi City County Betting, Lotteries and Gaming Act, 2026, Terms of Reference.”

Pursuant to the powers vested in the Governor of Nairobi City County under the Constitution of Kenya, 2010, the County Governments Act, 2012, and any other enabling law, there is hereby established a Taskforce to be known as the Nairobi City County Government Betting, Lotteries and Gaming Reforms Taskforce on the Review of the Implementation of the Nairobi City County Betting, Lotteries and Gaming Act, 2026 (“The Taskforce”).

2. Background

The County Government of Nairobi recognizes the significant role played by the betting, lotteries and gaming industry in economic development, employment creation, innovation, entertainment, and revenue generation.

Following a consultative meeting chaired by the Governor of Nairobi City County and representatives of the Association of Gaming Operators Kenya (AGOK), it was agreed that a multi-sectoral Taskforce be established to review concerns raised by industry stakeholders regarding the implementation of the Nairobi City County Betting, Lotteries and Gaming Act, 2026, and related regulatory frameworks.

The Taskforce shall provide a structured platform for engagement between the County Government and industry stakeholders, with a view to enhancing regulatory effectiveness, promoting compliance, safeguarding public interest, and fostering a conducive business environment.

3. Objectives

The Taskforce shall:

- Review the legal, regulatory and administrative environment affecting betting, lotteries and gaming activities within Nairobi City County;
- Consider stakeholder concerns relating to licensing, compliance, enforcement, taxation, fees, business operations and other county-related matters;
- Identify opportunities for collaboration between the County Government and industry stakeholders;
- Assess opportunities for responsible gaming initiatives, consumer protection, youth protection and public awareness;
- Develop recommendations aimed at improving coordination, transparency, compliance and ease of doing business within the sector;
- Benchmark Nairobi City County's licensing and regulatory framework against other counties and relevant jurisdictions.
- Recommend policy, legislative, administrative and operational reforms where necessary.

4. Scope of Work

The Task Force shall undertake the following activities:

4.1 Regulatory Review

- Review existing county laws, policies, regulations and administrative procedures affecting gaming operators;
- Review relevant national legislation and regulatory instruments;
- Identify areas requiring clarification, harmonisation or reform.

4.2 Stakeholder Engagement

- Hold consultations with gaming operators, industry associations, regulators, county departments and other relevant stakeholders;
- Document key concerns, proposals and recommendations from stakeholders.

4.3 Revenue and Economic Impact Assessment

- Examine the economic contribution of the gaming industry within Nairobi City County;
